NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The individual under supervision has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1	On September 3, 2022, the individual under supervision (IUS) was arrested by the Clifton Police Department and charged with Simple Assault and Criminal Mischief. He is accused of assaulting his ex-girlfriend and damaging her apartment. He was released on September 4, 2022, and the charges are pending.
2	On August 2, 2022, the IUS provided a urine sample which tested positive for marijuana.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Based on the new arrest for simple assault and criminal mischief, Mr. Velasquez is being referred to the United States Probation Office, District of New Jersey, STOP Program.

The individual has been attending outpatient substance abuse treatment at Turning Point. His counselor is aware of the positive test result and is addressing his drug usage through individual and group treatment.

Carlos Velasquez

The probation office is recommending no formal action be taken by the Court, until the pending charges are resolved, and the IUS has time to further engage in outpatient substance abuse treatment and the STOP Program. Should the IUS continue to engage in non-compliant behavior, the Court will be immediately notified.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
